NEW IMAGE PROTECTIVE SERVICES

Experience You Can Trust, Protection You Can Depend On!

New Image Protective Services provides customized security solutions to high net-worth individuals and enterprise-level organizations in industries including entertainment, transportation, aviation, special events, financial, legal, insurance, and hospitality.

- Employees are carefully screened and those with a military, law enforcement, fire service, EMS, security or college background are considered
- Employees are compensated at a rate above industry standard; we employ and retain professional, well qualified and experienced officers with a very little turn over
- Employees can be uniformed or non-uniformed officers
- All armed officers are licensed and certified to carry concealed weapons
- All employees receive on-going training in latest personal protection and loss prevention techniques
- One day to multi-year engagements
